BRUTALLY ASSAULTED.

lames F. Murphy Attacked While Driving

James F. Murphy, a young man employed as teamster by John Booth, of this city, had a painful experience while driving from Scranton to Carbondale Monday evening. Last week Mr. Booth borrowed from the Scranton Driving Park association a heavy road roller for use on Salem avenue, where he is finishing a contract. Having finished using the roller he sent Murphy with a team attached to the roller to Scranton, where it was left with the Scranton, where it was left with the owners.

It was late in the afternoon when he reached there and after delivering the roller he drove to central Scranton, where he had other business, and startwhere he had other business, and started on his journey home about 5.30. He had gone as far as the Marvine shaft just above the city line when he passed three young men walking in the same direction. As he passed them, one of them said: "Give us a ride." There was not room in the buggy for three and Murphy said, in a joking manner, "The walking's good, isn't it?"

Murphy said, in a joking manner, "The walking's good isn't it?"

The man made no answer and Murphy drove on. He had gone but about 100 feet from the place where they had spoken to him when one of the men climbed over the rear of the buggy and lealt Murphy a heavy blow with a club. He fell unconscious from the buggy to the road, where he lay until found by some passers-by. The horses became frightened by the occurrence and being without a driver turned round and started down the road. They were caught about a mile away by a man who drove them back, looking for their owner. The unconscious man was taken to Mahon's hotel, in Olyphant, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Kelly, of that place, and he is still there under the doctor's care.

Murphy had about $20 on his person, but no attempt was made by his ascailants to rob him.

When the young man had not returned to the city by midnight, Harry Booth drove down the valley, fearing foul play, and he was confirmed in his suspicions when he found the man in the physician's care.

DEATH FROM DIPHTHERIA.

A Little Girl Dies After a Two Weeks' Illneas.

The little daughter of the Widow Reynolds, of Belmont street, died Monday evening after an illness of two weeks. The child was buried yesterday after noon, Rev. G. A. Place, of the Methodist church, officiating. Besides this girl there are three other children sick with the disease, but they are now convalescent.

The mother, though, who contracted the disease while caring for her children, is now in a very serious condition and there are doubts as to whether her life can be saved.

The fire last Monday night proved to be a two-story frame structure owned by John Nelson, on the Greenfield road, just out of the city limits. Both fire companies were soon on the way, but were stopped, as the house was without the water limit. When the fire broke out the family were all asleep, but were warned by a neighbor, who had not yet retired. The inmates barrely escaped being roasted alive. The house was burned to the ground. It is thought that the fire was due to a defective chimney,

CANE PRESENTATION.

The Esteem in Which Father M. J. Kelly

The Esteem in Which Father M. J. Relly
Was Held by the C. M. B. A.

The Catholic Mutual Benevolent association of this city held a social at their rooms in the Durkin block. on South Main street, Monday exening, which was a most delightful affair. A special feature of the evening was the presentation of a beautiful gold-headed cane and a purse of $125 to Rev. M. J. Kelly, formerly of this parish, but now of Ashley. Those present were: J. J. Duffy, Frank Bohan, James C. Lydon, Joseph J. Gilligan, J. H. Foy, C. Donnelly, Dr. Wolsard, J. H. Collier, Anthony Early, Timothy Durkin, B. J. Durkin, Thomas Grace, P. F. Gallagher, B. J. Conlon, P. Gallagher, Edward Whalen, M. M. Moylan, Will Devaney, M. J. Healey, William McKaig, and W. S. Jordan. The invited guests were: Thomas English, T. F. Burke and M. W. O'Boyle. After a short time spent in reading and conversation Hon. William H. Rutledge, who was the presiding officer of the evening, called the company to order and made a brilliant speech in behalf of the association.

Father Kelly responded, having been deeply stirred by the esteem in which he is held by the members of the organization, of which he is himself a zealous member. The cane is a beautiful plece of workmanship and bears the following inscription. "Presented to Rev. M. J. Kelly by Branch 46, C. M. B. A., of Pittston, Oct. 28, 1895." The date is when the reverend gentleman was removed to Ashley.

An alarm of fire was sent out from box 63 at about 9.30 o'clock Monday evening. All the companies responded as usual, butwere unable to do anything owing to the scarcity of water. The house was owned by Peter Coggins and was insured for $400 in Captain Flannery's agency.
